As you prepare your breakfast, think of others
(do not forget the pigeon's food).

As you wage your wars, think of others
(do not forget those who're seeking peace).

As you pay your water bill, think of others
(those who are nursed by clouds).

As you go home, your own home—think of others
(do not forget the people of the camps).

As you sleep and count the stars and planets, think of others
(those who have no place to sleep).

As you liberate yourself with metaphors, think of others
(those who have lost their right to speak).

And as you think of distant others, think of yourself
(say: If only I were a candle in the dark)
